Why join? Membership donations allow the library to continue its vital role in the community.

In these uncertain economic times, the library is the one place in our community that offers free entertainment and resources for everyone. With recent budget cuts, your donations are crucial to help the library maintain its vital community role.

Friends raise funds through bookstore donations, annual membership dues and special fundraisers. Monies donated help fund:

- Children's summer reading programs which assist more the 1,500 students.
- eBooks, non-fiction, biographies, audiobooks and bestsellers.
- Music and art programs, technology education and community enrichment programs.
